BROOKLYN N.Y. MAY 23 10-30A 1918

NAVY YARD STATION

U.S. POSTAGE 3 CENTS

Miss. Frances Levine,
70 Somers St.,
Brooklyn,
N. Y.

9:25 A.M., May 23rd, 1918.

Darling Toots:-

I hope you will forgive me for not calling you up last night, but the reason I was, that I was too tired to keep my eyes open & my head ached terribly. I thought the best thing for me to do was to take a physic, which I did, & then go to sleep.

Toots, you must come tomorrow (Friday) night, even if you have to leave go of your dress. Mom is making a birthday party for Moe, so you see it is imperative that you come. I would have come down tonight, only I'm on watch, as I predicted.

How are you, darling? Did you sleep well at the Hospital? Hope you did. The chap that arranged it for us says he is going to try & arrange it so that we can see Raymond Hitchcock who will be at the Globe theatre as soon as Fred Stone moves.

Don't forget, Lootsie wife mine, Friday night.

With all my love,

Joe.